Summarization for meeting no : 17

Date of Report: 18 / 03 / 2023

SUMMARY:

The meeting discussed the upcoming hackathon and its final stage, which involves 250 teams presenting their solutions to a panel of judges. The criteria for evaluation were explained, with particular emphasis on the importance of a convincing solution, product stability, and the team's ability to work together. The judges will consider solutions based on how they solve specific problems in society and how they can be marketed. Each team will have only three minutes to present their project. The winners will be announced live and awarded a chance to present their show to the audience.

TASKS:

Important Information: - The discussion will last for 48 hours and end at 4:30 pm. - There will be 12 control rooms with 3-4 experts each. - Each team will have 3 minutes to present their project. - Criteria for evaluation include the solution, convincing the team, practicality, stability, and originality. - Judges will use a unified list of criteria for evaluation. - The best 10 teams will be announced and perform on stage. - The Haka final performance will conclude the conference. Tasks: - Ensure all team members have a hackathon ID. - Create team names. - Present the problem and solution clearly. - Convince the team to invest in the solution. - Work as a united team. - Prepare to speak in English or Arabic. - Ensure the solution is practical, original, and stable.

EFFECTIVENESS:

- The meeting needs to focus on explaining the criteria for evaluation, not just the explanations themselves. - A brief tour will be given, followed by 48 hours of discussion in 12 rooms with 3-4 experts each. - Control rooms will be available, and each team will have 3 minutes to present their solution. - The criteria for evaluation include a local solution (40%), convincing product, practical application, and stability. - Evaluation will be done in levels (weak, acceptable, good, excellent, distinguished) and unifying standards will be used to ensure fairness. - Judges should not focus on personal opinion, but on the potential for sales/impact. - Teams should work collaboratively and present a united front. - The ultimate goal is to convince the committee and win.

Thank you!
